To Our Friends and Valued Distributors Affected by Hurricane Ike:

We have been witness to the devastation caused by hurricane Ike. Our thoughts and prayers are with all victims in the affected areas of Texas and Louisiana. MCR Safety will support and aid in your efforts to recovery. We understand the disruption to your business, and in many cases to your homes and families, may create significant stress. During this time, MCR Safety will work patiently and cooperatively with you in getting back on your feet. Your Sales Representative will be contacting you directly in the coming days to discuss how we can assist you. In the meantime, should you have an emergency need after business hours, please call 1-800-955-6887 and select the MCR Safety “Emergency Customer Service” option (number 8).

May God bless you, your families, and your businesses.

Sincerely,

MCR Safety
